CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS

HIGH SCHOOL

. . . . . can spring be far behind?

Dedication

To the airplane spotters, the air raid wardens, auxiliary police and firemen, the Red Cross blood donors, and the various other "Home Front Volunteers" who are members of Columbus' faculty and student body, we dedicate this, our Yearbook of June, 1943. With a sincere sense of gratitude and appreciation, we of the senior class recognize the services they are rendering in the common cause of winning the war, and extend our thanks to them for their ceaseless efforts to protect the lives and property of their neighbors.

In crucial times such as these, when all of us are played on by mighty forces beyond our control, each of us must choose between two attitudes toward the future. One is the attitude of determination; the individual feels that, despite many interferences, he is still directing his life, controlling his actions, and furthering his plans. The other attitude is that of hopeless protest, or of helplessness; the individual feels that the world catastrophe has deprived him of all opportunity for self-assertion or self-direction. It is not necessary to stress the danger of this second viewpoint. If we were to adopt it on a national scale, it would lead swiftly to ruin. Yet many of our young men, feeling that the education on which they intended to erect their future is being interrupted, have fallen into a mood of indifference.

Actually educational opportunities for so many have never been so widespread. From the beginning of this conflict, our government recognized that education was part of the program for victory. Our army and other armed services have become, in addition to fighting organizations, highly developed educational institutions. Half of the personnel in these forces are attending technical or professional schools. Every young man in the services has an opportunity to continue his education on the high school or college level with the certainty of receiving credit for his study in schools and colleges after the war.

There is no justification for discouragement, no reason for any feeling of irreparable loss or of disastrous interruption. A vigorous and intelligent effort to fit your personal plans into the larger program of the nation will in most cases show that the one can be pursued as part of the other. When the history of this war is written in the perspective of later years, one of the most praiseworthy aspects of its conduct by the United States will be found in the fact that in the course of a total war, educational opportunity for American youth was not diminished but was in fact increased.

The other night I dropped in to bid goodbye to a lad I have known since he was born. He was leaving his home and his family, for duty in the Armed Forces. As I entered the living room he was holding in his lap a five months old son—and all the pride and love of a father shone in his eyes as the baby gurgled, stretched and then grinned at me.

"He sure is a fine lad; you know, he looks just the way you did at his age."

"Guess he's a better baby than I was," he assured me.

Banteringly I said, "Oh yes! A wonder child. I suppose he'll grow up strong, be a football hero and then go on and do great things, be a great man!"

Very seriously this man I had known as a baby, an adolescent, a college man, and now the head of a family answered, "No, Mr. Fontaine, he won't be one of the greats. We are not that kind of people. We have the brains, the imagination to do big things but we don't have the aggressiveness, the almost ruthless ambition, that is needed to get up and up. And who wants to be a 'big shot'? I don't want him to be and his mother doesn't. We just want this lad to grow up with the love of God and man in his heart; to be a square shooter towards himself and towards others; to have personal humility but with it an undaunted courage to defend those ideas, those institutions in which he believes. That is what spells happiness on this earth. That's all we hope for. That's all I'll work for—if I get back!"

To you graduates of 1943, I pass on these words of this young father leaving to do his duty for his country as I accepted them, with thoughtful emotion.

The war progresses and calls into its ranks the young men and women of America. Our four graduating classes since Pearl Harbor have swelled those ranks in the armed forces on land and sea and in the air, in war services and industries, and in essential pursuits on the home front. Long cherished plans for higher education and chosen careers have had to be laid aside to await the longed-for days of peace. The quiet courage that has accompanied this relinquishment attests to the realistic acceptance of a difficult job to be done, and to the promise of heroism in finishing that job.

Of this we, your elders, who have shared your deliberations, are certain. We have no reason to fear that "summer soldiers or sunshine patriots" will be found among you, because we know how much the goal which exacts so much suffering and sacrifice means to you. Our hope is that you will never lose sight of that goal, which is nothing less than the spiritual redeeming of our civilization. Post-war weariness and disillusionment tend to dim the vision and relax the spirit. With the return to peace will come the need for courage even greater than that demanded by war, for it will be unaccompanied by the stimulus of military discipline and clearly discernible victories.

Let us pray that our boys and girls will bring to the post war period the same singleness of aim and fighting spirit that is now winning the war for freedom.

Victory Mail

A Year Book, our editors felt when they were compiling this one, should have above all other qualities that of making the present live again years from now. Some day boys and girls who are now graduating will want to recall what this time, Spring, 1943, was like. They will want to relive it in memory. And since so much of our thought and feeling is now with the boys who have left our ranks to take their places in the various branches of our armed forces, the editors believed that this book could not do better than preserve the messages so many of them have sent us from all parts of the world,

Space has not permitted us to print every one of the letters received by teachers, students, and the Commercial Club, but we have tried to select a representative collection and we present it here. We know you will enjoy these letters now and long after when our boys have returned.

Guadalcanal

Dear Mr. Fontaine:

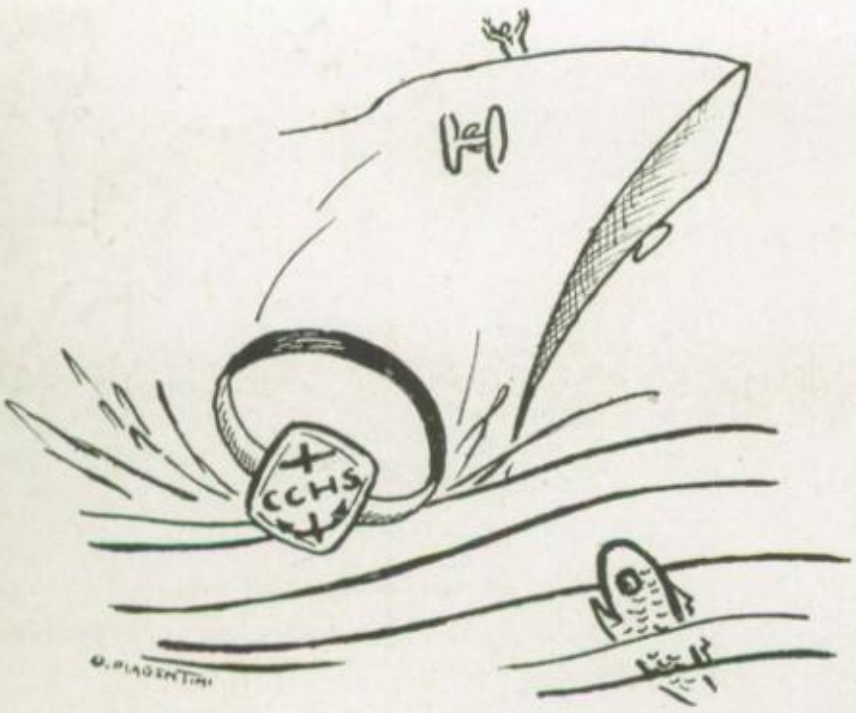
The other day I received a letter from home telling me I had gotten my diploma. The news made me very happy, but I wish that I could have been there myself to get it.

If it is at all possible I would appreciate it very much if you would send me a copy of the "Admiral" that had the write-up of the graduation exercises in it. I haven't gotten any news about the exercises yet, and want very much to find out about them. Any news of the happenings at Columbus would be welcomed, for I really miss the good times I used to have there.

One thing that all this has taught me is how lucky the American youth is to be able to go to school and leran whatever he wants to. I've also learned that there is no country on earth like the good old United States. One never seems to realize that fully until he has spent some time outside of the U. S. I only hope that I will be able to be back there in the very near future.

Give my regards to every one at school. And tell them I'll be seeing them soon.

Respectfully yours,
PVT. LE ROY PRICE, JR., U.S.M.C.



I lost the school ring when we were up in Miami.

C. G. C. 83375
Key West, Florida

Dear Mrs. Helfer:

Remember me! I guess I must have slipped up in answering your letters. Please forgive me as we have been so busy lately that I haven't had much time to write. Miami to Cuba, Cuba to Key West, Key West to Cuba, and so on. Today was the first mail I've received in almost a month and a half. What a relief to find everything is all right at home.

Well, how are you? Still struggling with a bunch of ambitious students? Do you remember a very ambitious young fellow by the name of Gruetzner? Wasn't I the outstanding English scholar? Incidentally next month will be a year since I quit school to come into the service. The time sort of flew by for me.

Imagine my delight to find a pile of letters here for me. But brace yourself for this one; it almost floored me. My Dad enlisted in the Navy. He is a chief petty officer in the Sea-Bees. (Construction Battalion of the Navy.) I sure am proud of him. I was hoping I could get a leave to go home, but the most I can get on this ship is a measly three days.

Cuba is quite a place! The part that we were near is a very poor town. Whenever we would go to town, Cuban children would swarm after us asking for money or begging to shine our shoes for "cinco centavos" (5c). Another thing that was in great demand was American cigarettes. They soon found out I didn't smoke so they left me alone. My buddy and I had one little fellow for an interpreter. He spoke a little English and helped us out a great deal. He was only six years old, but he sure could drink beer.

Well, I guess I'll close now and hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

CHARLIE GRUETZNER

P.S. I lost the school ring when we were up in Miami. I went to heave a mooring line and the ring went overboard as the line slid through my hand. I sure was mad.

No doubt you are looking forward to the week vacation. I'll bet that will come in handy for you. Maybe when we reach our permanent base I'll get a leave.

Well I guess I'll close now as I am kind of sleepy.

Sincerely,

CHARLIE

Dear Mr. Fontaine:

I'm very sorry I didn't write any sooner, but I was very busy with shipping and school.

As you probably can see by the envelope, I am now in South Dakota. From Sunny Florida to the hills of Dakota, and boy does it get cold up here. The week I came we had 36° below zero, so you imagine how cold it gets.

I left Miami Beach about a month ago and as soon as I arrived here I started going to school. My course consists of theory and code. They are trying to make a Radio man out of me. The course is 18 weeks, and it isn't bad, but half the time the class falls asleep because we have the night shift, and it's pretty hard to sleep in the day time. We start school at 10:50 P.M., at 2:30 A. M. we eat, and we have to be in class at 3:15. We leave school at 6:20 and back to our barracks for calesthenics from 6:45 to 8:15. Then we clean our barracks and get ready for inspection. At 9 A.M. we have our supper, and at 10 we get our mail. We are not allowed to go to bed until 12 P.M., so we write letters and gab. Before twelve comes around we are not tired anymore, so we hang around for a few hours more, but we feel it in the evening. Well, that is all about me. How's the school? Did any teachers leave for the army? Boy, I sure wish I had been at graduation, but that was impossible. I wonder if there is any chance to get the school paper. If there is, I would appreciate it very much, because I miss the school, and I would like to read about everyone, and get all the dope on activities.

Well, I'll have to be running along now, so please send my regards to the teachers and students, and I'll write again soon. Please answer as soon as possible. Thank you very much.

An ex Columbian,

BEN SONKIN

Dear Mr. Kavee:

I was just sitting and recalling the swell times I had while I was in school when I remembered that I didn't write to you. I hope you will excuse my thoughtlessness.

I left for Camp Dix on January the 28 just one hour before the graduation exercises started at the 'Loew's American.'

We arrived at Dix in the midst of a terrible hail storm. We remained in Camp Dix for six days, drilling, taking examinations, and being classified. On February 3, we left Dix without the slightest idea of where we were going or in what branch of the Army we were to be placed. Once the train left Dix we were informed that we were in the Army Air Corps, but they would not tell us where we were going. Well, as things turned out we found ourselves in Miami Beach, Florida. While we were in Miami, we lived in luxury. We were living in luxurious hotels. Each room had its own shower and we had soft hotel beds in place of the Army's G. I. beds.

We went through an eighteen day basic training period in Florida, and we were classified as to what branch of the Air Force we would be put into. I chose Aerial Photography and that's what I received. When the basic training was completed, we went into advance training and those who had satisfactorily completed their basic training were put on a list of men awaiting shipment to one school or another.

I shipped out of Florida on the sixteenth of February and spent six nights and five days on the train. I am now stationed out here at Loury Field in Denver, Colorado, and this coming Monday I will start a twelve week course in Aerial Photography.

Incidentally, just before I was shipped out of Florida, I received my first stripe. I was raised from a Buck Private to a Private First Class.

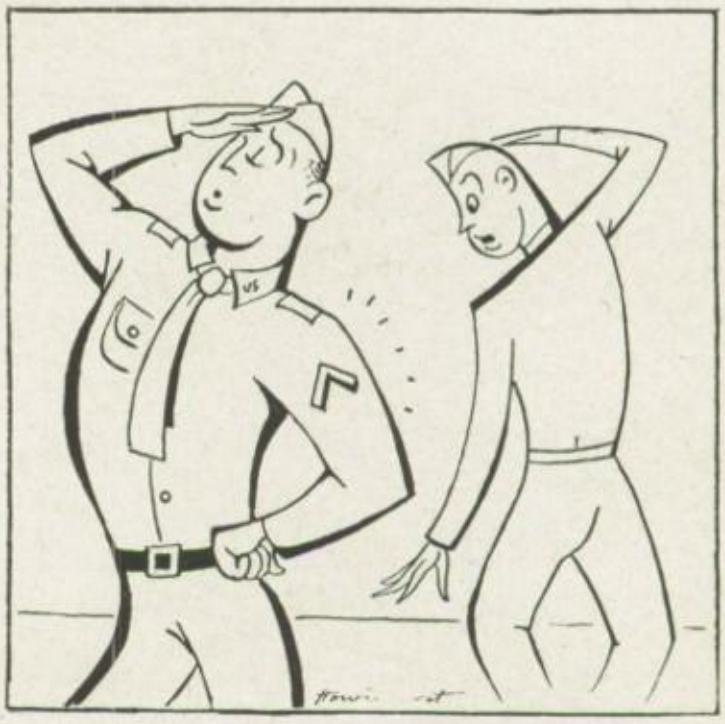
I really like this life a lot, but there are times when I get so homesick that I just don't know what to do. I think that if I can just get home to see my folks once I'll be all right.

In my traveling from Dix to Florida and then here to Denver I have met quite a number of boys that came from Columbus.

I hear that familiar chow call now so I'll have to bring my letter to a close. If you write to me and tell me how things are going in good old C.C.H.S. I would be very glad to get your letter.

Yours truly,

ARTHUR KURZ



I received my first stripe.

Little River,
South Carolina

Dear Mrs. Helfer:

Well here I am in South Carolina. We passed North Carolina yesterday and the day before. Christmas Eve we stopped in a little town called Belhaven, N. C. It was quite a nice town. I tried to call home but was told I'd have to wait at least three hours for the call to go through. So that ended that, I thought. A couple of the boys and I decided to drown our "Christmas Blues." While doing the same I happened to become acquainted with the chief of police. Well anyhow, he took me over to the station house and told me I could call any place in the U. S. and talk as long as I wanted as a Christmas present from the town, through him. As it was an official wire my call went right through. Boy, was I a happy fellow. After making my call I fixed it so that two other fellows could do the same. In the wind-up the score was three happy families, three happy sailors, and one proud police chief. We also got an invitation to the chief's home for Xmas dinner but we had to shove off early the next morning.

We left N. Y. as I suspected early Sunday morning (3 A.M.). We did convoy duty part of the way down.

Well, what's new with you. I hope you had a very nice Christmas and will have a nice New Year's.

Sincerely,
CHARLIE GRUETZNER CGC83375

P.S. This is the smallest town I have ever seen. It is all asleep now (2:00 A.M.) I hope I can find a mail box somewhere.

Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

Dear A. J.

It was certainly a delightful surprise to hear from the folks back in Columbus. Thanks for sending a copy of the C.C.H.S. News Flashes. You may be interested to know that Murray Boizell and Anthony Pace, who got their sheepskins with me back in June, '41, are with me here at Ft. Monmouth. George Weber of the same graduating class is also in the Signal Corps, but stationed in the State of Washington. Well, I'll leave the rest of the gossip to you.

I pulled a fast one in enlisting in the Army. In my civilian occupation I was only getting paid for 6 days work—in the Army, I'm getting paid for seven. Not bad, eh?

Life here is swell—we are only one-quarter of a mile from the ocean, and after a light rain we sink eight inches below sea-level.

On manoeuvers, now. Just repulsed the "enemy" so I'm taking a breather. Pretty tough, writing in a fox hole.

Here's chow—a formation I'm never late for. Regards to everyone and thanks again,

PVT. SEYMOUR HERMAN, Co. K 1st SCRTC

U. S. Coast Guard
CGR 1120

Dear Mr. Kestenbaum:

I found the time to write home and thought I'd drop you a line.

We have been on the move quite a bit, running convoys up and down the coast. Wonderful life out here. It's making a real salt out of me.

We put ashore at Atlantic City and Asbury Park on the way. Nice places but you have to be a millionaire to really enjoy it. However, we had a good time, since the girls had plenty of money to burn. Very sociable people out there. They even meet the boat.

We have quite a job doing two types of duty. That is, fighting a war and at the same time keeping up the morale of the girls whose boy friends are in the Army. We do both, very well, WE think.

I seem to have grown twice as old as I really am. You would never take me for nineteen with a grown beard. Somehow it makes me look so distinguished. I feel like an admiral. It really comes in handy though, in shutting off the cold blasts of wind and spray from your throat.

I may drop in on you some day and scare the girls in your typing classes. But I don't think the officers will let me ashore with whiskers. Unless maybe ———I join the House of David.

Goodbye for a while and keep up the good work. Words can't express the way we feel about the work our friends are doing at home.

Yours sincerely,

"STAN CAFARA," B. M.2/c

At Sea

Mr. Kestenbaum,

Received your letter yesterday, and was very glad to hear all of the news from school. Maybe this little poem will explain why you receive such few responses to your various letters.

"Can't say a thing, the Censor's to blame.
Just say that I'm well, and sign my name.
Can't say where we sail from, can't mention the date.
Can't even number the meal I've ate.
Can't say where we are going, don't know where we will land.
Can't inform you if met by a band.
Can't mention the weather, can't say if there's rain.
All military secrets must secrets remain.
Can't have a flashlight to guide me at night.
Can't smoke a cig., except out of sight.
Can't keep a diary, for such is a sin.
Can't say for sure just what I can write,
So I'll call this my letter, and close with good night."

I know you would like to know where I am and what I'm doing. Sorry. However, I can assure you I am in the best of health.

Getting the girls to give up their silk and nylon stockings must be like pulling teeth.

I've changed my rate from Seaman 1/c to Fireman 2/c. If and when I get the opportunity, I will pay CCHS a visit.

Time is getting short so I'll close now, hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

JOE DISEGNI, F. 2/c

Dear Mr. Kestenbaum:

Your letter of December 8, 1942 on behalf of the Commercial Club just arrived. Thanks to the fact that I have a cold sore on my lip I have been excused from morning rehearsal and so am able to answer you promptly.

Apropos your request for details concerning my Army career, those I am able to give you a very few indeed. As you know, I enlisted immediately after graduation in June of 1940 so that I might have a crack at one of the few appointments to West Point. All my efforts since then have been bent to that end. Last year I was a student at the Army's West Point Preparatory School and, while I ranked among the first ten of a class of one-hundred and forty, I just missed out. The issue is still in doubt as to whether I will enter this July 1. I have taken the competitive examinations for the appointments of my representative, Sen. Mead, and Vice-President Wallace, and have also gone before a board of officers for an Army designation. So far no one knows as the results have not come out yet. The outfit I am in, besides affording me much pleasure through its musical activities, also allows me quite a bit of free time for my studies. All in all it is an ideal set up albeit it has been two and a half years since I've seen a familiar face.

To those students who may soon be entering the service I have this to say. The Army may at times seem cruel, impersonal, and entirely impassive towards a young man's wishes and abilities. There are no soft spots in the Army. Opportunities for advancement are a-plenty but they might as well not exist if you don't know your own mind. If you have your heart set on a certain goal and don't just want to be carried along with the tide, find out EVERYTHING about the goal, do EVERYTHING to make it possible, and above all, keep a clear head so that you may be able to take advantage of the slightest break. The Army definitely has a place, and a good one too, for a man with initiative.

Hoping to hear from you again very soon and with best wishes for a victorious new year and a humane peace, I am

Yours in scholarship,

LAWRENCE W. SCHLOSS, Class of '40.

There are no soft spots in the Army.

Dear Mrs. Governale:

I received your most welcome letter, and believe me it was swell to hear from you. You sure make a fellow feel good. I am so glad to hear you have forgiven me for the trouble I gave you back home—. I don't mind telling you I had fun and would sure love to be back. When I was in school I couldn't wait until I got out. Now things are different. I've been around.

I am glad you got the picture I sent. Gosh, that gun is my pride and joy. She sure is a beauty. I call her all different names. I sure will be proud to use it. I owe those Japs plenty, and I hope to repay them.

It is swell to hear all my classmate buddies are in there pitching. I know how they all feel. It sure will be swell to get back and have a celebration and with our teacher there, too. Don't worry Mrs. Governale, we will be back victorious.

Thanks a million for taking care of my message.

I don't know when you will hear from me again. We expect to shove off any day now. As soon as I get a chance though I'll write to you.

I'll be looking for you along Fifth Avenue. I gotta sign off now as it is time for taps. So long for a while and if any of the gang comes to see you tell them I was asking for them.

Sincerely,

PVT. ROBERT J. SCHNEIDER

Last Will and Testament

We, the Graduating Class of June, 1943, being of sound mind and body, (where ignorance is bliss, etc.), leave the following to our dear teachers and friends:

Dr. Loughran	A Victory Corps which will make history.
Miss Becker	A student body which presents NO problems.
Mr. Fontaine	A new crop of student aides as attractive as the last batch.
Mr. Oglio	A class that listens willingly to broadcasts.
Mrs. Patow	A class of non-chewers.
Mr. Albert	A whistle which will go off automatically as soon as a student whispers.
Miss Halstead	An all boys' class.
Mrs. Lane	Students as manageable as "Mrs. Chase."
Miss Green	The peace and quiet our departure will bring.
Mrs. Schultz	More of the same.
Mrs. Nover	A furlough for her favorite soldier.
Mr. Hilton	A water sprinkler for his boutonniere.
Mrs. Patterson	A class of court stenographers.
Mr. Stasheff	A ticket to next term's dramatic tournament.
Mr. Tarr	A book on tennis.
Dr. Winning	A priority on needles.
Mr. Stoll	Our discarded senior hats.
Mr. Balser	Courage to be bold enough.
Mrs. Wachs	Oxford accents for all the students.
Miss D'Amato	A class as sweet as she wants it to be.
Mr. Kestenbaum	A Sten class as uncomplaining as Sten 641.
Mrs. Helfer	A Year Book without tears.
Mrs. Strobel	A staff of Rembrandts for the next Year Book.
Mrs. McConnell	Our thanks and appreciation for her splendid organization of Senior activities.

Oscar is a good little boy.
He goes to church on Sunday
To pray to God, to give him strength
To flirt with the girls on Monday.
